The training camp package includes a completely full board service. In the morning a delicious breakfast buffet is served that leaves nothing to be desired. For lunch and dinner, your individual tailored menu can be cooked in the modern kitchen. In this matter, the kitchen team contacts you before the training camp starts.

„Quality and variety of meals in exclusive surroundings serve as a basis for sporting excellence. “

The Parkhotel Horst offers exceptionally good opportunities for team meetings, conferences or training sessions. The hotel itself disposes of 12 multifunctional and well-equipped meeting rooms. Some of these rooms offer a great view over the lake and the park. All meeting rooms are equipped with a projector, a sound system, magnetic walls, boards, flip charts and meeting materials. Electronic game consoles can be connected and used in the rooms, as well as in the conference- and lounge-rooms.

In addition, the team has a well-equipped and easy-to-reach material room and a comfortably equipped massage room including three massage tables. These services are also integrated in the training camp package and free of charge for the team.

The Parkhotel Horst has a well-equipped swimming pool, a wellness center and luxurious Saunas. One indoor and one outdoor sauna such as a Turkish steam bath are for free for a team. Next to the swimming pool you can find a beauty salon. There it is possible to relax or to get a wellness treatment.

The idyllic lake and park around the hotel offers the team a lot of jogging and biking routes. Bikes for free usage is included in the training camp package.

Team-Building this topic get a high priority in the preparation for a match or a whole season in modern professional football. In the close neighborhood of the Parkhotel you find a wide range of teambuilding opportunities. The leisure facility “Blue Lagoon” adjoins directly to the spacious ground of the location. Focal point of this wide facility are water sports. Kayak-tours or waterski-action, you’ll find something for everyone. The sandy beach and the clear water of the nature lake offer the perfect situation to swim and relax.

For sports activities you also find beach-volleyball- and soccer-fields, as well as a professional climbing forest. If you like it a bit faster, so you can make a trip to the Indoor-Kart-Arena in Swalmen, Netherlands, just a few kilometers away from the Parkhotel. A team-event on the racecourse offers variety during a training camp.

“Activities beside the training fields stimulate the team spirit and offer the necessary variety during a training camp.”

Near the Parkhotel, you find the 18-hole golf-course „de Golfhorst“. In the landscape you find your drives and greens in between small rivers and lagoons, which offer a challenge to golfers of all levels. Just 40 minutes away from the Parkhotel, the capital city of North-Rhine-Westphalia – Duesseldorf is located.

Germany's most luxurious shopping street, the Koenigsallee, or the famous River Rhine Promenade pull each year millions of tourists from all over the world to Duesseldorf. A trip to the metropolis next to the River Rhine offers an interesting variation to the everyday training. International flair, the hippest shops and “the longest bar of the world” the old City of Duesseldorf, make the state capital city to a unique experience.

Professional training pitches are the central element of each training camp. Therefore the Parkhotel Horst offers excellent possibilities. Directly next to the hotel you can use the training facilities of the Dutch club RKS V Wittenhorst. The professional training ground of Wittenhorst offers 4 pitches one of them of artificial turf, which can be used twice per day as part of the training camp package. You can reach the pitches in 5 minutes on foot. Alternatively, the freely available bikes can be used. The main pitches dispose of a floodlighting system.

In total privacy and away from paparazzi's and reporters, you can prepare your team in Horst for the upcoming tasks. The quality of Dutch football fields is famous all over the world and can be found at the pitches of RKS V Wittenhorst, too.

Since many years, a lot of European top teams find their way to the German and Dutch border region to prepare for important matches or for the whole season. The hospitable behavior and the excellent training facilities in the border-region of Germany and the Netherlands are the reason for this choice. Beside the fields located next to the hotel, there are more than four additional training locations from German and Dutch amateur-clubs who you can reach easily in less than 10km. These facilities offer natural and artificial training grounds which fits to the highest requirements.

Only 2 minutes away from the Parkhotel Horst you find a well-equipped fitness center, which offers a broad range of training equipment. On this modern gym equipment it is possible to increase the stability of the players and to focus on injured players.

The Parkhotel Horst is located in a real football-region. On the German side of the boarder, you find in a radius of 100 kilometers clubs like Borussia Moenchengladbach, Fortuna Duesseldorf, Borussia Dortmund, FC Schalke 04, Bayer Leverkusen, 1. FC Cologne, VfL Bochum, MSV Duisburg, Alemannia Aachen and many amateur clubs on a good level. In addition to that, there are a variety of sports grounds with high quality for friendly matches during the training camp in the region.

The Dutch clubs like VVV-Venlo, PSV Eindhoven, Twente Enschede, Vitesse Arnheim, NEC Nijmegen, Roda Kerkrade and Willem II Tilburg can also be reached in less than one hour. Beside these teams, there are many second- and third-league-clubs from the Netherlands in the region. Even clubs from Belgium from the Jupiler Pro League, like Standard Luettich, KRC Genk or amateur-clubs from this country can be your opponent during the training camp. You can also play your friendly matches in the stadium of the Dutch professional club VVV-Venlo with space for 8.000 people 15 minutes away from the Parkhotel Horst.

Wir waren sehr zufrieden mit der Betreuung durch RP Sportmanagement während unseres Trainingslagers und möchten uns herzlich dafür bedanken.
